Program Description:

This 3-hour seminar will explore the legal and mental health issues and interventions where children are resisting contact with a parent, an increasingly common dynamic in high-conflict families. The interdisciplinary panel will also explore the characteristics of high-conflict families, essential skills for parents on both sides of this dynamic, and the spectrum of legal and mental health resources and interventions for these families.

Special attention will be given to intensive psycho-educational programs such as Overcoming Barriers Family Camp and Intensives.

Seminar Leaders:

Michèle M. Bissada, JD: Ms. Bissada is a Certified Family Law Specialist and a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. She is a partner at Flicker, Kerin, Kruger & Bissada, LLP, located in Menlo Park, in the heart of Silicon Valley. She received the Legal Aid Society's 2010 Dorothy M. Wolfe Award for her pro bono efforts.

Sherrol L. Cassedy, JD, MA: Ms. Cassedy has had a law and mediation practice for 30 years working with hundreds of couples in complex personal and financial circumstances. Ms. Cassedy spent the first 20 years of practice as an advocate representing individuals in divorce and the past 10 years serving as neutral mediator and private judge. She is a Certified Family Law Specialist, Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, and has been recognized as an outstanding family lawyer.

Hon. Marjorie A. Slabach (Ret): Comm. Slabach presided over a Family Court in San Francisco Superior Court from 1997 to 2011. She has been a Certified Family Law Specialist since 1992. She has been honored as Judicial Officer of the Year by the State Bar F/L Section and AAML NorCal. She is the current President of Overcoming Barriers, Inc.

Matthew J. Sullivan, Ph.D.: Dr. Sullivan is in private practice in Palo Alto, California, specializing in forensic and clinical work in the Family Courts. His full-time practice focuses on work with high-conflict shared custody situations. He serves in a variety of court-related roles, including mediator, co-parent counselor, Parenting Coordinator, testifying expert and consultant. He received the 2012 Joseph Drown award for outstanding service to children by the AFCC, California chapter. Dr. Sullivan is a co-founder of Overcoming Barriers, Inc., which is a non-profit organization that has developed a variety of innovative programs for high-conflict shared custody arrangements.
