CURRENT PRACTICE

Engaged in private practice as a clinical and forensic psychologist. My practice serves individuals, couples, and families of all ages. I treat a wide range of problems, and areas of special interest and expertise include couples and family therapy, divorce therapy with children and adults, reunification therapy, family and divorce mediation, forensic evaluations (eg. custody and visitation; removal, grandparent visitation, sexual harassment, post-traumatic stress, battered women, employment discrimination, personal injury), parenting coordination, post-judgment dispute mediation, therapeutic mediation, treatment of mood disorders, and women's issues. I conduct Intensive Family Interventions for families in which a child resists contact with a parent (Building Family Resilience). I am a Clinical Assistant Professor of Psychiatry at UMDNJ-NJ Medical School. I also serve as the Chairperson of a Parenting Coordination Roundtable.
